

SPEAKER SERIES

Sponsored by the NCTSN Terrorism & Disaster Network Committee

To register and access presentation materials, visit:
<http://learn.nctsn.org>

Toward Modernizing Child Disaster Mental Health

Robert Pynoos, MD, MPH & Betty Pfefferbaum, MD, JD

Trauma Treatment in the Community After Disasters:

Lessons Learned from the New York Area CATS

Program after 9/11

Juliet Vogel, PhD & Peter D'Amico PhD

Public Health Continuum of Care for Delivery of Trauma

Focused Psychosocial Stabilization After Disaster

Robert Macy PhD

Research After Disasters: A 20-Year Retrospective

Armen Goenjian MD & Alan Steinberg, PhD

Katrina's Children: Response, Resilience, & Recovery

Joy Osofsky, PhD & Howard Osofsky, MD, PhD

Trauma & Resilience in Children: Practical Lessons

Ann Masten, PhD

Trauma, Spirituality, & Provider Care

David Foy, PhD

Response & Recovery After School Violence

Melissa Brymer, PhD & Marleen Wong, PhD

Disaster & Media

Elana Newman, PhD & Bruce Shapiro

Trauma Research: Role of Cultural Sensitivity

Russell Jones, PhD

Treating Children After Disasters

Judith Cohen MD & Michael Scheeringa, MD

Community Resilience to Disasters: Serving Children & Families

Rose Pfefferbaum, PhD

*This series is free and open to the public. You can earn 1.5 CE credits for each presentation.

*For more information about this series, contact Melissa Brymer, PhD at mbrymer@mednet.ucla.edu.

This series is funded by the Substance Abuse & Mental Health Services Administration, US Department of Health & Human Services.